Circa 1888
No Heritage Overlay on the building

A first time offering, this Victorian Carpenter Gothic style property sits amongst the native trees on 1956m<sup>2</sup> in the heart of rural Wallington.

A fine example of its era, the property offers high cathedral timber ceilings and stained glass leadlight windows. A once in a lifetime opportunity could be converted into an architectural masterpiece home, cafe, wedding, function complex or investment accommodation letting. Recently converted onto 2 titles, the property offers the ability to add to the site whilst restyling the original church (STCA).

The quaint chapel includes foyer, class/meeting room and good sized kitchen along with bathroom facilities and
